MOUNT VERNON.

The Colored Republican McKinley and Hobart Campaign Club had a rousing ratification meeting in Lincoln Hall on Monday evening, and in addition to the members there were also many of the well-known white citizens present. Mr. Johnson presided, and after a short address of welcom troduced A. E. Cowan, president of the New-York State Colored Republican League, who made an address that aroused much enthusiasm. analyzed the principles of the Republican platform, owed how closely allied they were to the interests of the laboring people as compared with the He dwelt especially upon Persocratic platform. He dwelt especially upon the plans of the Republican platform on finance. Democratic platform. He dwelt especially upon the plans of the Republican platform on finance, protection and reciprocity matters, and at the close the audience gave three cheers for "the Republican party and McKinley and Hobart." A Noel Blakeman, chairman of the City Committee, made an address that clearly and comprehensively clucidated the complexity of the financial question, so that every hearer understood why it was against his interest to support the free-silver dectrine. Mr. Bates, of Bronxville, also made a strong address. The Young Men's Republican Club, which is strong in numbers as well as in sentiment and its work, has rented a new building in Fourth-ave, near Second-st., and fitted it up as headquarters. Arrangements are being made for a ratification meeting, but in the mean while evening meetings are, being held, and there is a quantity of campaign reading on hand.

The Republican primaries of the several wards will be held to-morrow night, when delegates will be elected to the Assembly and County conventions. There will be a spirited contest for electing delegates to the County Convention between the friends of the candidates for Coroner.

The Board of Alderman held a meeting on Monday evening, most of the business transacted being in relation to the pulling-places in the soveral wards. The Mayor's recommendation regarding the improvement of North Third-ave, was taken up and plans ordered prepared. The mount Vernon Hospital

Was repealed.

A reception on Monday evening in honor of James A. Brierly, the new secretary of the Young Men's Christian Association, was largely attended. Anaddress of welcome was made by the Rev. Charles S. Lane, and was followed by a musical entertainment. L. E. Hebbard, of Springfield, Mass., has been secured as physical director of the association. The local truck company has arranged to hold a fair in Stephenson's Hall from October 6 to October 10.

The fortieth anniversary of the dedication of the Universalist Church was begun on Sunday with a historical address by the Rev. Frank L. Masseck. The church is the oldest in this city, having been built in 1855. It was dedicated by the Rev. Thomas J. Sawyer, who is now the oldest living pastor of the Universalist Church. The Rev. C. H. Chapin, also a pioneer in the Universalist faith, was present, and preached on the occasion of the dedication.

YONKERS.

The Rev. Albert A. Lings, rector of St. Joseph's Church, in this city, was the guest of honor at a dinner yesterday afternoon in St. Joseph's Hall given by the priests of Putnam, Dutchess and Westchester counties. Another McKinley and Hobart banner is to be raised to-morrow night. A number of enthusiastic Republicans of the Fifth Ward recently started a subscription and met gratifying success. The banner will be swung at Beech and Maple sts, and George L. Weeks will deliver the address. Local speakers will also be heard.

Miss Gertrude Wallace, Miss Sadie Donohue and Miss Zeta McGrath are conducting a sale at No. 50 Caroline-ave, in aid of the children's ward of St. Joseph's Hospital. It was opened yesterday afternoon and will close to-night.

The students reported at the Royal Seminary at Valentine's Hill on Monday. In the evening a retreat began, which will continue until Tuesday of next week, when the students will begin their regular studies.

The last picnic of the season will be held to-day at Jones's Woods, Lake Mohegan, by the Catholic congregation of Shrub Oak. The committee in charge consists of the Rev. John MacAvoy, Michael Dillon and Michael Finnerty.

Members of the Democratic Town Committee of the town of Cortlandt will meet this evening at the office of the chairman, Eugene B. Travis, and will plan to try to keep the Republican majority as low as possible in this town this fall.

Edward Bellefeuille, chairman of the Republican Town Committee, has announced himself as a candidate for the nomination for County Treasurer.

NEW-ROCHELLE. was held on Monday night to reorganize for the cates that there is little left of the Democratic party in New-Rochelle. As soon as the meeting Conklin, drew from his pocket a package of resignations. The first was from William T. Emmett, chairman of the committee. It was a discouraging blow to the Bryan supporters. They had been expecting to nominate Mr. Emmett as their candidate for Congress, but this hope was crushed when Mr. Emmett refused to reconsider his resignation. He said: "Circumstances have so shaped themselves since spring that I cannot accept the nomination. I believe Bryan is an honest and good man personally, but I cannot support the piatform on which he is running." Following Mr. Emmett's districts of the town of Greenburg. John W. Ackerman, Henry Loomis Nelson and Colonel Richard Lathers, ir. After a spirited debate the resignations were accepted, and M. J. Dillon was elected chairman of the Town Committee and delegate to the county convention. Mr. Dillon made a speech, in which he referred to Mr. Bryan's speech on Monday and indorsed the candidate's sentiments when he said that those who are now leaving the party need not come back for honors in the future. At this point Mr. Emmet and the dissenting Democrats arose and walked out of the hall in a body. The resignations of such prominent party leaders and business men have crippled the Democracy of New-Rochelle beyond repair, and it is generally believed that Democratic victories here are a thing of the past.

There was some excitement in Upper New-Rochelle on Monday evening, at an election which was held in School District No. 2. The vote was being taken on the question of appropriating $300 with which to transport the children to and from the school in the winter months, and resulted 17 for and 16 against the proposition. H. A. Sebrecht, who was the chairman, then cast his ballot in the negative, and made the vote a tie. This was the signal for a general uprour among those who favored the stage plan, as they contended that the chairman had no right to vote. The meeting was finally adjourned until snother date, and in the mean time the advice of State Superintendent Skinner will be asked.

On Monday evening the boathouses and boats at Milton Point were visited by thieves, who took away a large amount of plunder. The thieves continued along the Sound, and reports of their depredations come from Portchester, Mamaroneck and Larchmont. Among the boats robbed in Rye were the sloop yacht Tilford, Frank Murray's Silence and Charles Gould's Cella. A boat belonging to the family of Augusta Schell was broken from her moorings and taken away.

The harbor improvements at Mamaroneck, provided for by a $10,000 appropriation by Congress, were started yesterday.

This village is prepared for the firemen's parade that takes place to-day, and all that is needed is fair weather to make the occasion a great civic demonstration. At 10 o'clock there will be public exercises at Moran's Hall. The parade will start promptly at noon, and later dinner will be served at the ball park in Mamaroneck-ave. In the evening there will be an open-air concert in the square in front of the Orawapum Hotel, where the firemen's arch will be illuminated. The dwellings and business places of the village will also be illuminated. A free entertainment will take place at the Auditorium, and a bail will be held at Wiegand's Hall.
